About Our Branch

The Reston-Herndon Area Branch, founded in 1969, is a vibrant group that balances community action with fun and welcomes members from the Reston, Herndon, Oak Hill, Chantilly, Sterling, Ashburn, Potomac Falls, Leesburg and Great Falls areas.

Branch Activities:

- monthly branch meetings from September through June, usually featuring a guest speaker, covering a wide range of topics, from politics to education to women's health.
- monthly newsletter detailing upcoming meetings, events and other items of interest;
- monthly book discussion group;
- monthly cultural programs;
- gourmet dinner group;
- public policy e-mail to receive action alerts on timely issues of importance at the state and federal levels.

Branch Projects:

- lobbying for women's issues at the state and national levels;
- initiating a county-wide effort to secure increased funding for the Fairfax County Women's Emergency Shelter;
- working with the Dulles Section of the National Council of Negro Women (NCNW) to register voters;
- tutoring/mentoring girls in grades 3 to 6 who are considered "at risk" academically;
- annual conference for local fifth and sixth grade girls - GEMS (Girls Excelling in Math and Science & Technology);
- "Tech-Savvy Girls" video dealing with importance of encouraging girls to enter high-tech fields.

National membership includes two publications – Outlook and Mission in Action. State membership includes the quarterly Virginia Vision.

American Association of University Women

The American Association of University Women promotes equity for all women and girls, lifelong education, and positive societal change.

AAUW values and seeks a diverse membership. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, or disability.

AAUW's Action Public Policy Priorities

To support a strong system of public education that promotes gender fairness, equity, and diversity, AAUW advocates:

- Adequate and equitable funding for quality public education for all students
- Opposition to the use of public funds for nonpublic elementary and secondary education
- Vigorous enforcement of Title IX
- Programs that meet the needs of girls in elementary and secondary education

To Achieve economic self-sufficiency for all women, AAUW advocates:

- Fairness in compensation
- Equitable access and advancement in employment
- Vigorous enforcement of employment anti-discrimination statutes
- Access to quality, affordable dependent care
- Programs that provide women with education, training, and support for success in the work force
- Welfare reforms and other programs that improve post-secondary education access, career development, and earning potential
- Social Security and Medicare reform that guarantees improved retirement security for women and all low-wage workers

To guarantee equality, individual rights, and social justice for a diverse society, AAUW advocates:

- Vigorous defense and expansion of civil and constitutional rights
- Choice in the determination of one's reproductive life
- Freedom from violence and fear of violence in homes, schools, workplaces, and communities
- Expansion of health rights for women, families, and children
- Support for UN programs that address human rights and women's and girls' concerns
